CEPIC RECOMMENDATIONS FOR RESTAURANTS IN MALLORCA

1. CAN EDUARDO
Fresh fish, lobster, shellfish, by the old town, with nice views overlooking the harbour traditional fresh fish and seafood cuisine. All the fish is bought at the fish market underneath the restaurant.

2. CASA MANOLO
All kind of grilled and plate fish and seafood. Wide variety of fish and seafood dishes grilled and grilled, Mediterranean Sea and mallorcan cuisine.

3. BRUSELAS
High estándar cuisine in an old mallorcan house refurbished, at the old town. International and Argentinian cuisine. It was created from a typical Mallorcan house built in the year 1400. You’ll find a variety of International and Argentine dishes, as well as prime cuts of Argentinean meat grilled on vegetable charcoal.
4. CAN PEDRO
From 1976 on, this restaurant in Genova does typical mallorcan cuisine, specialized on meat. Two of the most popular dishes are snails and “frito mallorquín”.

5. TAST CLUB
One of the most elegant places in town, hidden from the crowded streets. Good food in an sophisticated old English Club atmosphere.

6. OMBU
Tapas and creative cocktails in a restaurant with a decoration similar to the area around.

7. FORN SANT JOAN
Located in the 'forn' (meaning bakery in Catalán). A family-run restaurant which successfully maintains an excellent relationship with its customers. Mediterranean, tapas, all with modern touches.

8. TOQUE
Belgium restaurant. The cuisine is also Mediterranean, mixed with belgium specialities. Pleasant and family treatment.
9. PATRON LUNARES
One of the coolest restaurants in Palma, nice ambiance and decoration, good food and original history from the place itself. Nice mixture of fish, meat or dishes to share between few people.

10. FERA
Fera is an exceptional dining address, only a minute away from the lively shopping mile of Jaime III in Palma’s city center. Executive Chef, Simon Petutschnig delights you with exquisite Borderless Mediterranean-Asian flavors and textures.

11. DE TOKIO A LIMA
Located within the Can Alomar Boutique Hotel, this is popular with discerning locals as well as hotel guests — for both the cuisine and elegantly restored 19th-century mansion setting. The cuisine is a successful (and trendy) fusion of Japanese, Peruvian, and Mediterranean, with the à la carte menu sectioned into starters, raw and marinated, from the stove, and sweet temptations.

12. IL PARADISO
One of Palma’s luxury restaurants renowned for offering the most exquisite cuisine. Delicious Italian and Mediterranean cuisine, carefully created from the finest of authentic ingredients and served with a smile.

13. SA DRASSANA
Housed in a nineteenth-century Majorcan manor house, traditional dishes and new creations inspired by Balearic cuisine.
14. LA PALOMA
Emblematic old building, with a romantic and warm ambiance. Traditional menú with delicious meat and tapas.

15. AROMATA
Andreu Genestra moves his products and his science to a patio of a Mallorcan manor house of the s. XVII, with classical technique and flavors of the earth with its own inspiration.

16. WASABI
Both for lovers of traditional Japanese food to those seeking more sophisticated, avantgarde or fusion recipes, the restaurant offers an extensive and careful selection of dishes in which the fish is not the only option.

17. THE MERCHANTS PALACIO CAN MARQUES
Fresh seafood and premium steaks. Plenty of shareable dishes and lighter options, perfect for families.