

CEPIC LEGAL WEBINAR

10th September 2020
from 16:00 to 17:30 CET
via ZOOM

The EU Directive - one year after. Where are we now?

Last year the CEPIC Congress programme included a special Legal Workshop which reviewed the EU Copyright Directive and examined the different interpretations across the EU member states. The success of this roundtable event has given us impetus to arrange a follow-up session.

CEPIC is inviting expert speakers to review the evolution of the Directive over the past year and how it will progress by the June 2021 deadline:

- What is the outcome of the stakeholder meeting dialogue?
- What does implementation look like in the different member states?
- What is being done and what to expect from implementation?
- Am I getting some financial compensation and when?

Speakers already signed up:

Dr Eleonora Rosati, International IP lawyer

Matthieu Desoubeaux, CEO Imatag

Further speakers to be announced.

Target audience:

Participants of the Paris Legal Workshop in 2019 + other interested CEPIC and DMLA members, up to 100 participants (that's the Zoom limit).

Main topics:

- Art. 15 on publishers' rights and on how these extend to news agencies

- Art.17 on bridging the value gap for creative content online
