

KATHERINE BRIGGS

Katherine Briggs, serving as the General Counsel for Envato, plays a pivotal role in the leadership team of one of the world's foremost online communities dedicated to digital creativity.

Katherine holds a pivotal role in overseeing Risk, Compliance, and Legal functions within the organisation. A seasoned leader with a proven track record, she brings a wealth of experience in legal, compliance, and risk management gained from her roles in both listed and private high-growth enterprises.

Throughout her career, she has demonstrated a keen ability to drive change, making her an invaluable asset in dynamic business environments.

Katherine's leadership spans various sectors, including fintech, telecommunications, and technology, both in Australia and on the international stage. Her executive responsibilities have extended across continents, covering Australia, North America, South America, Europe, and Asia.

Notably, Katherine served as the former General Counsel to iSelect and has held executive leadership positions with prominent brands such as global payments provider eNett, REA Group Ltd, and Quest Apartment Hotels.

Beyond her executive roles, Katherine contributes her expertise to the business consulting realm as a member of the advisory board for Luna Tractor.

Her multifaceted career and extensive background in legal and compliance make her an influential figure in shaping the strategic direction of Envato and contributing to the broader landscape of digital creativity and technology on a global scale.
